HIS Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales will have a Levee on Saturday Se'nnight, the 21ſt Inſtant, and afterwards on the Firſt Saturday in every Month, during the Sitting of Parliament.

Carlton-Houſe, February 13.

The Prince of Wales has been pleaſed to make the following Appointments in His Royal Highneſs's Houſhold, viz.

Colonel Hulſe, Comptroller of the Houſhold.

Colonel Stevens and Lieutenant-Colonel St. Leger, Grooms of the Bed-chamber.

Major Churchill and the Honourable Captain Ludlow, Equerries.

St. James's, February 17.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, has been preſented to the King by Abel Moyſey, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Bath.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmeſt Aſſurances of Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and Zeal for your Government.

It is with the greateſt Satisfaction that we have ſeen the unconſtitutional Attempts of your Majeſty's late Miniſters to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, and to introduce into our free Government, a new and formidable executive Power, defeated by the wiſe and happy Interference of one Branch of the Legiſlature. And we humbly thank your Majeſty for having ſhewn your Diſapprobation of ſuch Attempts, by diſmiſſing thoſe Miniſters from the Public Service, and by the Choice of others whoſe Ability, Firmneſs and diſintereſted Conduct, have gained the Confidence and Affection of your Majeſty's Subjects in general.

We truſt that your Majeſty will continue to exert, with the ſame Fortitude, your Royal Prerogative in the Defence of our Liberties, by oppoſing every Innovation in our preſent admirable Conſtitution. And we cannot doubt but your Majeſty will receive the zealous Support of every good and loyal Subject, againſt the Machinations of thoſe Perſons, who make no Scruple to impede, to the utmoſt of their Ability, the eſtabliſhed Courſe of Government, at a Time when our Negotiations with foreign Powers, our domeſtic Arrangements, and above all the alarming State of our National Finances, call aloud for the united Exertions of every Branch of the Legiſlature.

That your Majeſty may very long continue to reign over a free and loyal People, is the Object of our moſt fervent Wiſhes.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourteenth Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable William Ward, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worceſter, (in Council aſſembled) beg Leave with all Humility to approach your Royal Throne, to expreſs our ſincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and to offer to you our moſt hearty and unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's truly paternal Affection for your People, particularly manifeſted by the Diſmiſſion from your Majeſty's Councils of thoſe Miniſters, who, by their recent Conduct, menaced Deſtruction not only to your Majeſty's juſt and conſtitutional Prerogative, but alſo to the ineſtimable Rights and Privileges of your Majeſty's Subjects, granted to them by the moſt ſolemn Charters.

We further intreat that we may be permitted to aſſure your Majeſty of our determined Reſolution to exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, in the Support of the Prerogative, by the Conſtitution wiſely repoſed in the Crown, relying firmly that your Majeſty in your Wiſdom and Goodneſs will always exerciſe it to the Advancement of the Honor of your Crown, and to the Welfare, Proſperity, and Happineſs of your free and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guild-hall of the ſaid City, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Magiſtrates, Sheriff, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the City of Litchfield, has been preſented to the King by George Anſon and Thomas Gilbert, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Magiſtrates, Sheriff, Clergy, and other Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the City and Cloſe of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, whoſe Names are ſubſcribed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts warmed by Affection and Gratitude for your Majeſty's invariable Attention to the Proſperity of your People, and to the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, we cannot forbear expreſſing, in this critical Moment, our Admiration of the Wiſdom of our Anceſtors, in placing in the Crown the undoubted Right of appointing to all the Offices of executive Government; a Right which, as we conceive, ought not directly or indirectly to be infringed by either of the other Branches of the Legiſlature. And we truſt that your Majeſty in your Wiſdom will exerciſe this legal Prerogative, whenever you ſhall find it it neceſſary for the Good of your Subjects, in which you will ever have our hearty Support.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a united, free, and happy People, is the ſincere Wiſh of your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Manufacturers, and Traders of the Town of Birmingham, has been preſented to the King by Sir Robert Lawley, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Warwick, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Manufacturers, and Traders of the Town of Birmingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, alarmed at a late Attempt to wreſt from the Eaſt India Company the Management of their own Commercial Concerns, and to veſt them in a new-created unconſtitutional executive Power, preſume to approach your Royal Throne with Aſſurances of the ſincereſt Reſpect and Attachment; and humbly to thank your Majeſty for your paternal Care in protecting the Conſtitution from the late dangerous and innovating Attack, by diſmiſſing from your Councils the Adviſers and Supporters of it, and for having made Choice of a Miniſter, who, as far as we can judge, has endeavoured to promote the true Intereſt of this Country.

We humbly conceive the Prerogatives of your Majeſty's elevated Station were intended to operate for the Good of your People; and ardently beg your Majeſty will accept our firm Aſſurances of a ſteady and uniform Support in every Conſtitutional Exigence.

The following Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Sir George Yonge, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of your antient Borough of Honiton, conſider it incumbent on us, at the preſent alarming Moment, to expreſs our Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We have beheld, with infinite Concern, the Progreſs of a Meaſure, which equally tended to encroach on the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown, to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the Eaſt-India Company, and to raiſe a new Power unknown to this free Government, and highly inimical to its Safety.

As this dangerous Meaſure was warmly ſupported by your Majeſty's late Miniſters, we heartily rejoice in their Diſmiſſion, and humbly thank your Majeſty for exerting your Prerogative in a Manner ſo ſalutary and conſtitutional, and for appointing an Adminiſtration, we truſt, of Wiſdom and Integrity, and deſerving the Confidence and Support of the People.

Truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Affection for all your Subjects, we pray the Almighty that you may long reign over a free, and happy, and united Nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough, the Twenty-eighth Day of January, 1784.

[Signed by 182 Perſons.]

The Two following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King by Charles Brett, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Dartmouth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants, Traders, and other Principal Inhabitants within your Port of Dartmouth, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants within your Port of Dartmouth, humbly approach your Majeſty's Throne on the preſent Situation of Public Affairs, with the greateſt Veneration, to expreſs our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family, and Government.

Deeply intereſted in the Welfare of your Majeſty's Dominions, and anxious for the Happineſs of our Fellow-Subjects, we ſincerely rejoice in the late Diſmiſſion from your Majeſty's Councils, of Men whoſe Principles and Conduct appeared to be corrupt, and whoſe Councils were ſubverſive of the Conſtitution, and the ſacred Rights and Liberties of the Subject.

We moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for exerting, in this Inſtance, your undoubted Right and juſt Prerogative, and for your Majeſty's gracious Diſpoſition to ſupport the Rights and Liberties of your People; and we firmly rely on your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, to continue in your Service ſuch Men as appear to be moſt deſerving of your Royal Confidence, and that of your Subjects in general.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, we will, at all Times, ſupport your Majeſty in the conſtitutional Exerciſe of every juſt Prerogative of the Crown, and particularly in ſuch as your Majeſty in your Wiſdom may judge to be neceſſary for cruſhing that Faction which now obſtructs the free Exerciſe of the Powers of Government.

That your Majeſty (free from the Councils of corrupt and ambitious Men, who aimed at ſubverting the Conſtitution) may long and happily reign over a free and grateful People, is the Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects.

[Signed by 180 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence humbly to expreſs our Gratitude and Thankfulneſs for the late Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Regard and Care for the ſacred Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, in diſmiſſing from your Service and Council Men whoſe Conduct and Principles manifeſted them to be regardleſs of both, and rendered them unworthy of your Majeſty's Royal Confidence.

We cannot but obſerve with Indignation the Efforts of diſappointed Faction to embarraſs the Meaſures and degrade the Characters of thoſe Men whom your Majeſty hath thought fit to call into your Service; and we obſerve, with Concern, the open avowed Endeavours, as well as the ſecret Machinations, of that Faction to graſp at the Reins of Power, and force your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters from your Service, in open Violation of your Royal Prerogative, which properly veſts in your Majeſty the ſole Power of nominating your own Servants.

We at the ſame Time admire the Firmneſs and determined Reſolution of your Miniſters to continue in the Service of your Majeſty and of their Country, and not to be compelled to abandon or reſign their Stations by any other than your Majeſty's jeſty's Commands, nor to unite with Men of Principles inimical to the Honour of your Majeſty and the Welfare of your Subjects, at this important Criſis.

Permit us, Sire, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, and of our determined Reſolution, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſupport and maintain our happy Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's Honour and Dignity in the full Exerciſe of every juſt Prerogative of your Crown, which the Neceſſity of the Times may require, or your Majeſty's Wiſdom ſee prudent to exert.

May the unhappy Diviſions, which now diſtract your Majeſty's Empire, be ſpeedily ended. May all your Subjects, in every Part of your Dominions, equally participate of the Bleſſings of returning Peace, and of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government: May your Majeſty's Reign be yet long and happy over a free and grateful People; and may the Crown of theſe Dominions deſcend in your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family to the lateſt Poſterity, are our moſt earneſt Prayers.

Given at our Council-Chamber, under our Common Seal, this Thirteenth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clothiers, and other Tradeſmen of the Town and Liberty of Trowbridge has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clothiers, and other Tradeſmen of the Town and Liberty of Trowbridge, in the County of Wilts, impreſſed with the warmeſt Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Affection and Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with the moſt ſincere Aſſurances of our cordial Affection and hearty Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

Whilſt we reflect how wiſely the Conſtitution we live under is calculated to anſwer all the good Purpoſes of Government, and to preſerve the Rights and Privileges of every Denomination of the Community, we think it our Duty, at the preſent Juncture, to teſtify our full Confidence in your Majeſty's Adminiſtration; and that we are firmly perſuaded that, in the Exerciſe of your rightful Prerogative, your Majeſty has conſtantly in View the real Happineſs and Welfare of your People.

We further aſſure your Majeſty, that, from a Conſciouſneſs of the Rectitude of your Majeſty's Intentions in all the Meaſures of your Government, we ſhall not be wanting to exert ourſelves in the Support thereof, and in the Maintenance of all the Conſtitutional Rights and Prerogatives you are inveſted with, by every Exertion and Means Providence has given us.

And as we conſider your Majeſty's Reign the greateſt Bleſſing to your People, we pray the Almighty to prolong your Days, and to crown your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Family with every public and domeſtic Happineſs.
